

Quad Bike Trekking

Contributed by admin
Monday, 10 November 2008

One of the best locations for stag do is Nottingham, the first UK city to relax its drinking laws thus having the highest density of licensed premises in the country filled with party loving crowd. Stag weekends in Nottingham are filled with thrilling stag activities like quad biking, off road karting, clay pigeon shooting, greyhound racing, five a side football matches and much more!

The Thrill of Quad Biking

A fully automated 250cc Polaris Trailblazer quad bike, which is twice as powerful as the 125cc Yamaha Breeze quad bike with a speed of over 40 mph - sounds exciting! Well, you can surely ride one if you are on a stag weekend in Nottingham. You will be given some initial driver briefing and then you will have 70 acres of woodland before you to enjoy the thrill of quad biking. A maximum of five people are allowed per session accompanied by one instructor. This stag weekend activity lasts for 1½ hour including the briefing, and each rider gets to experience the thrill for at least ½ hour.

You start this exciting stag weekend activity by taking a few laps of the dirt speed oval to get used to the powerful 250cc Polaris Trailblazer. Then starts the fun as you travel through the gorge crossings, the swamps and the woodland passages. Are you ready for the big challenge?

Benefits of Stag Weekends in Nottingham

If you are in love with adventure and exciting outdoor activities, stag weekend in Nottingham is the best option for you. You indulge in thrilling and challenging stag do like the quad biking and off road karting. Chillisauce brings for you all types of ideas for the perfect stag weekends, stag parties and stag nights. The quad bike trekking in Nottingham serves the purpose of a stag weekend as promised by Chillisauce &ndash; it drives away the monotony from your daily life and fills you with fresh energy to face the world with a smile.